

EEO is off to a great start with therapist visits, packed seminars and inspired teachers and students that are moving FORWARD!

EEO staff gathering at library to plan for upcoming school year....

It is going to be another great school year for the children of Harbour Island and Eleuthera. EEO's outreach efforts include critically needed therapist visits, daily in-school instruction in 5 public schools and a seminar series to provide training with latest strategies for special needs and literacy challenges.

Upcoming EEO events

- Speech therapists Dina Whittaker and Miri Tursing return in October for follow up therapy visits and Part 2 of workshop: Reaching Learners with a variety of Learning Styles
- Dyslexia expert, Abigail Fisch, providing a workshop on Differentiated Instruction \(postponed due to Irma but being rescheduled\)
- Hearing screenings starting in October at Governors Harbor Primary and following in all EEO centers . EEO underwrites visits to ENT / Hearing specialists in Nassau for children needing more in-depth care
- More books and cataloging system for EEO centers thanks to Freedom To Read Inc.
- New EEO teacher, Emily Gold, for Harbour Island All Age School starts in

January

- Parent workshops in each settlement throughout school year
- After-School Programs for EEO students
- Speech therapist Beth Waite returning for workshop in Spring
- New EEO resource room being created at North Eleuthera Primary in collaboration with amazing design group TrioEnvironments.com

Take a peek at few former EEO students in their communities now...

Jaden went to technical school and now is studying culinary arts while also working at delicious Sweet Spot on Harbour Island.

*Jonathan is head hospitality manager at Valentines.
5 Star Service Rockstar!*

Sonja works at North Eleuthera airport and can brighten your day with that beautiful smile no matter how hectic the airports gets.

*Vincent got his pilot's license!
And he is the brother of amazing EEO teacher Jeni Charles.*

Benita works at Arthur's Bakery, volunteers with EEO and has new hearing aides as part of EEO's on-going support .

286 students have been mainstreamed since 2007!

Ways to get involved ...

Sign in to smile.amazon.com and search
"Exceptional Education Outreach"
Every time you shop you are supporting the children of Harbour
Island and Eleuthera. We also have "EEO Wish List".

Purchase India Hicks beautiful collection and give to EEO, thanks to long-time EEO supporter Ann Lenane and her daughter Riley.

www.indiahicks.com/rep/annlenane

Click here to learn more ways to help

Instagram

For more updates and EEO inspiration
follow our Instagram account- EEOBahamas

Or join Friends of Harbour Island and Eleuthera

Our Philosophy

Just because someone learns in a different way does not mean he/she doesn't have the potential to succeed. Some of the most creative and successful individuals have been challenged by a Learning Disability. EEO offers children the chance to learn in small groups with individualized strategies that incorporate various Learning Styles. Motivating and inspiring young people to reach their potential is what we do.

Our website has been evolving... check out

EEOBahamas.org

 Thank you Pablo Conde **

Feel free to contact us
Exceptional Education Outreach Bahamas
EEO Directors :
Lang@EEOBahamas.org and Gaby @EEOBahamas.org
Miami: (305)389-7485 | EEOBahamas.org